

LEGACY

Kimo Artis, Michael Ruff, Zanuck Lindsey

I imagine generations that came before me,
I feel their bloodlines coursing through my veins
All the triumph, love, and joy in their lifetimes
All the tragedy and pain

If I could voyage on that first sail from Tahiti
I'd be humbled by their vision and bravery
I would thank them for the seeds of my existence
And how they sowed my family tree

CHORUS:

I'm proud to be Hawaiian
A Steward of the land and sea
Ke Akua, give us hope for our tomorrow
And perpetuate our LEGACY

I teach my children now to heed our kupuna
Ancient wisdom handed down from royalty
The Polynesians traveled miles across the ocean
So we could flourish and succeed

We are descendants of a bold and vibrant people
Whose inspiration was the 'aina and the stars
Kanaka maoli are the soul of this paradise
Time to remember who you are

Now, my tree is strong and I look toward the future
Our inheritance, no one can take away
It's in the tiny hands of all our sons and daughters
Ke Aupuni o Hawaii Nei

I'm proud to be Hawaiian
A Steward of the land and sea
Ke Akua, give us strength for our survival
And perpetuate our LEGACY
